RE: National Public Health Week Celebration at Public Library
RUN: Immediate Release

The Bay County Health Department will be hosting Passport to Health, a celebration of National Public Health Week (NPHW) on Friday, April 11, 2014 from 11:00am-4:00pm at the Alice & Jack Wirt Public Library. This event will take you and your children off on an adventure around the library where you will make stops at

- Be Healthy From the Start
- Be Prepared-Don't Panic
- Be Wise-Prevent Disease
- Be Well with Good Nutrition

Children will receive a passport when you arrive and will collect stamps at each stop along the way. Once your adventure is complete and all of the boxes are stamped, your child will be eligible to receive a goody bag while supplies last.

Make sure to mark your calendar for April 11, 2014 from 11am-4pm to join in the fun and like us on Facebook to receive reminders for the event during the week of April 7th.
